As meninas fazem as flautas contralto e os meninos fazem as flautas baixo

The image displays musical notation for two groups of flutes. The top group, for alto flutes, uses the vowel 'é' and is divided into four measures. The first measure contains one flute with 'é' on a green line. The second measure contains three flutes with 'é' on a green line. The third measure contains three flutes with 'é' on a green line. The fourth measure contains three flutes with 'é' on a green line. The bottom group, for bass flutes, uses the vowel 'ó' and is also divided into four measures. The first measure contains one flute with 'ó' on a black line. The second measure contains three flutes with 'ó' on a black line. The third measure contains three flutes with 'ó' on a black line. The fourth measure contains three flutes with 'ó' on a black line. A yellow treble clef is positioned between the two staves. Green lines and arcs indicate the pitch and phrasing of the notes.
